The First regiment of Arizona volunteer cavalry arrived from the west at 3:30 this afternoon and were sent south, after a short stop, to El Pass. There were 190 men and seven officers, and were an exceptionally fine body of men. They left Prescott at 6 p. m. Wednesday, where they were mustered in at Whipple Barracks, at which point all the recruits were gathered. A large demonstration at Prescott, and all along the line, was reported by the officers. The officers so far selected are Major Alex O. Brodle; Capts. "Bucky" O'Neill and McClintock; First Lieuts, Joe Alexander and F. Frantz; Second Lieuts. G. B. Wilcox and R. L. Patterson. It was expected that the troops would go north to Newton, Kansas, but orders were received here to go south to El Poso. The cars were decorated with banners and mottoes. "Cowboy Regiment of Arisona," "Remember the Maine," etc. One of the officers stated that he expected to be in Cuba within ten days.
